This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Preface.

PADIHAM is an ancient parochial Chapelry in the Hundred of Blackburn, distant about four miles west of Burnley.

The Chapelry of Padiham was originally part of the extensive Parish of Whalley.

The first religious institution that is recorded in Padiham was a small chantry founded sometime before the year 1451, by John Marshall; to this was added a second chantry probably endowed by the inhabitants of Padiham about the year 1525, and called in the Commission of Edward the Sixth "A Stipendarye in the Chappell of Padiham in Whalley."

After the dissolution of these chantries in 1548, there was granted a sum of £6 19s. 2d. as a stipend for a curate under the Mother Church of Whalley.

In the reign of Henry VIII. the original chapel was probably rebuilt, and at the time of the Lambeth Survey in 1650 was parochial, the minister, John Breares, A.M., receiving £6 19s. 2d. paid by the Receiver of the Duchy, and £33 0s. 0d. from the Commissioners of the County, and it then served the townships of Padiham, Symonstone, Hapton, and Higham, with West Close Booth, containing a population of 232 families and 1106 souls.

Higham with Westclose Booth and Heyhouses, or, as this district was generally described, Pendle, must have been added after the dissolution of the chantries, for prior to that period these districts were within the parish of St. Michael's in the Castle.

At the time of the Lambeth Survey Heyhouses was stated to be in the chapelry of St. Mary's, Clitheroe, and as an extraparochial place had along with the rest of the unappropriated territory of the ancient parish of St. Michael's in the Castle, been attached to the parish church of St. Mary's, Clitheroe, but after this Survey it appears to have been added to the Pendle division of the Chapelry of Padiham, though it was always called extraparochial, and its inhabitants described as of the Chapelry of St. Michaels in the Castle, though this, as a chantry had been dissolved in the reign of Edward the Sixth. The majority of the inhabitants, however, baptized and buried at Padiham, and some had seats by prescription in Padiham Church, and the Easter Dues were collected by the clerk of Padiham, and appear in the Easter Rolls of that Chapelry.

On the 13th day of April, 1849, the Church of St. Nicholas, Heyhouses, the foundation stone of which had been laid with Masonic honours by Mrs. Starkie of Huntroyd, on the 23rd of October, 1838, was made a parish church, and by this means the extraparochial place of Heyhouses, as well as so much of the Chapelry of Padiham as lay to the North West of the old highway from Whalley to Colne, running on the top of Padiham Heights, was severed from Padiham, and along with portions of the Chapelry of Newchurch in Pendle and Parish of Whalley were joined together into a new parish, and called the Parish of Heyhouses. With the exception of this area of the Chapelry, it remains the same as after the Commonwealth Survey, and though several churches have been built within the Chapelry, they have not been separated, but remain under the Mother Church of Padiham.

The original Church, built about the year 1451 and restored in the reign of Henry VIII, was itself superseded by the one built in 1766, a brief granted for that purpose in 1763, producing £1029.

The foundation stone of the present building was laid by the late Le Gendre Nicholas Starkie, Esq., June 28th, 1886, he and his ancestors having been patrons of the living since the year 1730, when Pierce Starkie, Esq., obtained the advowson under the Act of George I.

The Registers begin June 14th, 1573, and with the exception of a small break from the 4th of December, 1642, to the 13th of July, 1645, are complete. They are generally in very good condition, though some few pages are soiled and worn with age.

This first volume consists of 123 leaves of Parchment, measuring 6 inches by 13½ inches, the leaf following the entry 4th December 1642, has the half of it cut away. It is bound in calf and entitled "No. 1 Padiham Parish Register of Baptisms, Marriages, and Funerals, commencing 4th June, 1573, ending 24th Sept: 1653." The whole of this Volume is here printed. In the Churchwardens' Accounts occurs "Ap: 10th, 1805, Pd. H. Earnshaw's Bill for Registers, &c., £10 5s. 0d," an entry which probably refers to the rebinding of the Registers, and affords evidence of the care with which they always seem to have been preserved.

The first page of the Original Register now printed is signed "Johnes Baxter, Curat; Henericus Sagar, Willimus Claiton, gardiani." This does not prove that John Baxter was the vicar, but rather that the first part of the register has been re-written probably about 1616, and that the first page was signed by the vicar and wardens of the time, who probably intended signing every page, but failed to do so. The Episcopal Transcripts at Chester have been searched and every important variation noted. In many instances Entries have been found in the Episcopal Transcripts which are missing from the Original Volume.

The thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. H. Haworth, M.A., the Vicar of Padiham, for his courtesy in allowing the Transcription of his Registers and to the Registrar of the Diocese of Chester for a similar courtesy in relation to the Transcripts in his custody, and lastly to Mr. Price, the Chief Clerk in the Chester Diocesan Registry, whose patience and kindness are inexhaustible.

How to account for this shameful neglect, or violation, of the Registers, in a chasm of two years and a half, I know not

J Adamson Incumbent 1799

At first sight, it might seem, that the three leaves, which have been cut out immediately succeeding this, had contained the connection, but the four Registers in the part of a leaf now extant, & immediately ensuing, namely in the year 1644, one of which is a Record of the Baptism of the Registrar's own child, will not allow of this conjecture. For, in the first place, why is this leaf on which I now write, not inscribed and filled up as usual to the very bottom? And secondly why is not the connection from 1644 to July 1645, which is again in Mr. Breres' own hand kept up? Mr Breares is styled "Ministar of Padiham xxv Julie 1647"

Mem that the Register Booke, being here, (before & after 1624) taken out of the Church without my privity, by the Ch-Wardens & delivered to Robert Roe, to write out a Coppy of the last yeres Register, for the Synode, (whether also they sent it without my knowledge) was not brought againe unto me (though I diverse times spake of it even publickly) till after the Nativity last. Whereby it came to passe that no notice was taken at all of any either bapt or buryed, for the space of a moneth at least no nor all the yere after, save as I could my selfe, in a private booke, & therefore as the last yere, they required not my hand neither can they have it this yere: for that I cannot affirme it to be a perfect Register

Rules.

1.—That the Society shall be called "The Lancashire Parish Register Society," and shall have for its object the transcribing and publishing of the Registers of the ancient Parishes of the County.

2.—That the affairs of the Society shall be governed by a Council, consisting of a President, Secretary, and Treasurer, with nine other members, to be annually chosen at the general meeting.

3.—That three members of the Council shall form a quorum.

4.—That the subscription of members of the Society shall be one guinea per annum, which shall entitle them to the publications for the year; but any member whose subscription shall be two years in arrear shall thereupon be removed from the Society, and shall not be re-admitted until all arrears have been paid.

5.—That the subscriptions shall be due on the first of January in each year, and that no work shall be issued to any member whose subscription is in arrear.

6.—That an annual meeting of the Society shall be held in the month of February, of which due notice shall be sent to all the members. At this meeting, a report of the work of the Society, with a statement of the income and expenditure, shall be presented. These shall be annually published, together with a list of members and the rules of the Society.

7.—That so long as the funds of the Society permit, two volumes at least shall be issued to members in each year.

8.—That no payment shall be made to any person for editing any work for the Society, but that the editor of each volume shall be entitled to ten copies of the work so edited by him.

9.—That the Council may require any transcript to be examined by them before publication.

10.—That no volume of Registers be published without a full index of both Christian names and Surnames.

11.—That the Treasurer's accounts shall be audited by a member of the Society, who shall be elected at the Annual meeting.

12.—That no alteration shall be made in any of the above rules except at the annual general meeting. Notice of any proposed alterations must be sent to the Hon. Secretary a month before such general meeting.
